DEDICATION

MISS VIOLA HELTON

We, the senior class of 1950, wish to dedicate this issue of the Parrot yearbook to Miss Viola Helton, freshman-sophomore English teacher. She has willingly helped us in many ways throughout our high school years.

PARROT YEARBOOK STAFF

The Parrot yearbook staff for this year was appointed by the adviser, Mr. Hires. Murlene Garber was selected as editor, with Vernon Guth as her assistant. Nancy McDermott and Eugene Nauman, selected as business managers, were in charge of securing advertising and selling subscriptions. Donna Turner, art editor, was in charge of insert pages. Kathryn Leatherman gave much of her time to help with The Parrot.

All of the group pictures and many of the individual pictures were taken by Velde Johnson, manual training teacher. This is the first year The Parrot has had the aid of a teacher with such a helpful hobby. The Parrot staff wishes to express its sincere thanks and appreciation for the fine work Mr. Johnson has done for us.

After the pictures were taken, developed and then printed by Mr. Johnson, The Parrot staff prepared the pictures for engraving. The engraving was done by the Peoria Engraving company. After the engravings were returned, pictures were identified and copy written. Many thanks must also go to the many underclassmen who so cooperatively wrote club and athletic copy for The Parrot. After the book was organized, it was printed at the Metamora Herald.

We also wish to thank Miss Brucker for her splendid work in taking over the yearbook which was started under Mr. Hires' supervision. She has helped us in every way to complete the work. Miss Helton has also helped us whenever she could by checking copy.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It all began on Sept. 3, 1946, our very first day at MTHS. This first year we elected for our officers: Paul DuBois, president; Eugene Marchand, vice president; Rodney Bell, secretary, and Doris Elbert, treasurer. Our student council representatives were Janice Sullivan and James Herron.

On September 27, our class was quite a sight to see—it was initiation day for us. This was the first year Metamora had a Homecoming. As freshmen we elected Doris Elbert as our queen candidate and Richard Hoffman, usher.

Our one class party consisted of a wiener roast and hayrack ride. In the spring of 1947 Miss Helton, our English teacher, took us to Springfield and New Salem on a trip. This ended our first year together at MTHS.

Our sophomore year we chose Marvin Smith to lead the class. Marilyn Bachman and Doris Elbert were chosen vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. As sophomores, Muriene Garter and Robert Wagner represented us on the student council. Miss Helton and Mr. Stephenson were our advisers.

The class was very proud of their candidate, Sue Rohman, who was chosen Homecoming queen of 1947.

Our English classes took two trips this year. On March 23 we went to Peoria to see the movie "Henry V." and on April 17 we took a trip to Chicago to visit the Museum of Science and Industry, Adler Planetarium, Museum of Natural History, Tribune Tower and Hull House.

At the first meeting of the third year, we elected Doris Elbert president, Burtron Schertz, vice president, and Bruce Seeber, secretary-treasurer. Student council members were Bernadette Giehl, Marvin Smith and John Rauh. Miss Brucker and Mr. Larson were our advisers.

This was a very busy year for us. On October 1 our class had a hayrack ride to see a movie in Washington. All the juniors learned with happiness on March 15 that our class rings had arrived. In the spring we presented the play, "Uncle Fred Flits By," with Burtron Schertz playing the lead. Our class worked very hard to raise funds by having a turkey raffle, a bake sale, selling at all home football and basketball games and selling personalized stationery, napkins and cards.

On May 14 the annual banquet was held at the YWCA in Peoria. The theme used was "Forty-Niners."

Starting our last year at MTHS we selected Bruce Seeber president, Eugene Nauman, vice president, and Paul DuBois, secretary-treasurer. Marvin Smith, Betty Gries, Marilyn Bachman and Vernon Guth were our student council members. Mr. Dees and Mr. Stephenson were our advisers.

The seniors worked hard to make the Homecoming a success this year. Our queen was Doris Elbert, crowned by Captain Bruce Seeber. The members of her court were Donna Turner, Mary Glaub and Bernadette Giehl.

"Mother Is a Freshman" was a successful play presented by the seniors under the direction of Miss Helton. Betty Gries and Marvin Smith played the leading roles.

On April 29 the juniors gave us a banquet and prom long to be remembered.

Our class decided to present a program for the public by having "Senior night." This event climaxed the all school Honors day program which was held in an assembly. Senior awards and special recognition were given for outstanding achievements.

May 26 was a great day for the seniors—graduation day. Students receiving scholastic honors were Doris Elbert and Betty Gries.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President Bruce Seeber with the help of Eugene Nauman, vice president and Paul DuBois, secretary-treasurer worked hard to make our senior year a successful one. These three, with the other members of the class, helped in the planning and preparation of our class functions.

Throughout the year we were given guidance talks to help prepare us for the future. Talks were given by Professor Hagan of Eureka college, Dean Beard of Brown's Business college in Peoria, Sister Roberta of St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing in Peoria, Ray J. Schertz, president of the Metamora National bank and former principal of MTHS, and Wm. Owen of the Caterpillar Tractor company in Peoria.

The final class activity for the year was a senior cruise on Lake Michigan to Mackinac Island from June 1-4 aboard a D. & C. liner.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The time is 1950. Upstairs old St. Peter is perched on a pink cloud with his crystal ball. He is gazing into the future of the 1950 senior class of Metamora Township High school.

As the ball clears, he says, "Oh, yes, now I remember. Metamora is the home of the famous Gopher Hole stadium. It looks like they are having one of their Dandelion Bowl games this afternoon.

"Why, there's Eugene, oh pardon me, Professor Marchand watching the game. He is teaching English at MTHS now.

"Let's take a look uptown and see what's new there. Say, Betty Gries must have followed up on my guess. There she is in Barbara's Cocktail Lounge 'Come in and Get Your Kisser Wetter.'

"Well, well, it looks like Metamora even has a circus. Let's us see what it is. Oh, yes, Ellen Fries' Flea Circus. I see Vernon Guth is acting as barker for her. Their motto is 'Fries' Fleas, Please.'

"I always knew Danna Turner would develop her artistic ability. Right there she is, designing horse blankets at Ruth Leatherman's Swayback Stables.

"What's this! Does Metamora have an orphanage? Oh, no, it's only Jeanette Hiltner's family. She is deeply married to Fred Hand. She's writing a book about her married life called 'Cheaper by the Two Dozen.'

"Every class has to have its beauty queens. I've already spotted those in the 1950 class. Bernadette Giehl is Miss Fly Paper of 1960 and Nancy McDermott is Queen of the Metamora Folk Festival. In request of Eugene Nurnan the new bank president. John Rauh is posing for a Man of Distinction, Buttermilk ad. I wouldn't want to forget your important contribution to the world, John.

"Is anybody here looking for a moving van? I see Arnold Danz is in the business. His trucking capacity hasn't increased very much since high school days. His motto is 'If I can't take it in one piece, I'll take it in one hundred.'

"Now here's a friendship that really lasted. Kathryn Leatherman and Murlene Garber are now in business together. They run a secretarial school and their graduates are known as the best 'Sit on the Boss' Lap' secretaries around.

"Just as I thought. There's Doris running her own little nursery with the help of another character. She grows the best little saps around. 'If You're Up the Tree About a Tree, see Doris and Melvin's Nursery.'

"Looks like the rest of the class really went out to see the world. No, it can't be, but it is. Janice Sullivan is over in Europe writing French novels. There's Marvin Smith, a lighthouse keeper at Alcatraz.

Here's two serious minded kids. Bruce Seeber is a missionary at Pago Pago and Sue Rohman is a nun in a convent on top of the Himalayas.

"I often wondered where Roland Schneider would end up, and here he is manufacturing musical bathroom fixtures.

"Say, this is rare. Mary Glaub is substituting for the bull, I mean the bullfighter, at the Metropolitan Opera.

"Have any of you heard the famous new radio and television star, Burton Danny Kaye Jerry Lewis Schertz? He has five minutes over the radio and a half-second flash on television.

"Jim Herron certainly did all right for himself. He is a famous dress designer. His new burlap and cheese cloth creation is modeled by two of the famous Montgomery Ward models, Nancy Coe and Dorothy Marchand.

"Paul DuBois really made a smash hit on the screen. He is called Durango DuBois. Playing the part of his horse is Dick Hoffman, the horse with the most beautiful eyes in Hollywood.

"Well, I guess the class of 1950 did all right for themselves, so I can put my crystal ball back into moth balls for another year."

SENIOR PLAY

"Mother Is a Freshman," by Raphael David Blau was presented by the senior class in the MTHS gym. The three-act comedy, dramatized by Perry Clark was under the direction of Miss Helton.

The action of the play was centered around Mrs. Abigail Fortitude Abbott (Betty Gries), an attractive woman of thirty-five who looked even younger. Because of financial difficulties, Abigail decided to take advantage of a forgotten scholarship offered to anyone with the name Abigail Fortitude. This permitted her daughter Susan (Sue Rohman) to continue at Pointer college.

Abigail entered Pointer college as a freshman. Dean Gillingham (Burtron Schertz), angered at the thought of having an attractive widow as a student, informed Abigail that she had to study zoology intensively.

Susan thought she was in love with the zoology instructor, Professor Michaels (Marvin Smith). Michaels, a good-looking and personable man in his thirties, turned his attention to Susan's mother, Abigail.

The dean's apprehensions came true and campus life was upset. In the dormitory, Mrs. Miller (Kathryn Leatherman), the housemother, had difficulties with her cook (Dorothy Marchand) and the college handy man (John Rauh).

Bobo Jackson (Roland Schneider) and Clara (Janice Sullivan) were Susan's faithful friends.

Abigail attracted the interest of three college men (Bruce Seeber, Paul DuBois and Eugene Nauman). Doris Elbert, Bernadette Giehl, Nancy McDermott, Mary Glaub, Murlene Garber and Nancy Coe had roles as college girls.

Donna Turner was prompter and Richard Hoffman did an excellent job as stage manager. The furniture was donated by Wiedman's store.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The junior class began the year with forty-eight of our original fifty-one members. We chose James Zimmerman for our class president, Robert Rohman, vice president, and Marietta Schneider, secretary-treasurer. Our student council representatives were Colette Bachman, Phyllis Schumacher and Paul Schrock. The advisers were Mr. Hires and Mr. Larson.

In the fall our class had a hayrack ride and theater party. Everyone enjoyed the evening in spite of the rain and mud.

One of the main events of the year was our class play, "The Skin of Our Teeth," by Thornton Wilder.

Our class was well represented in both the state literary and music contests. The speech contestants were Harold Neumann, Connie Stamper and James Zimmerman. Robert Chilcot, Donald Halford and Connie Stamper participated in the one-act play, "Lathuania." At the music contest Mary Lee Noe and Barbara Grebner were soloists.

Another big day was February 28 when our class rings finally arrived.

Everyone enjoyed the excitement of selling at football and basketball games and the track meets. We also held square dances after several of the basketball games.

The annual banquet, given in honor of the seniors, was held on April 29 in the auditorium. We sponsored a spring prom for the public after the banquet, which concluded an eventful year.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On Monday, Nov. 21, the junior class of MTHS presented Thornton Wilder's famous comedy, "The Skin of Our Teeth." In this story of mankind's struggle through the ages, the Antrobus family typifies all of the human race.

This three-act play has its setting in New Jersey; the first and third acts take place at the Antrobus home in Excelsior and the second on the Boardwalk in Atlantic City. The first act takes place during the ice ages when Mr. and Mrs. Antrobus are plagued by cold weather and icebergs. When the Antrobus home is invaded by a band of refugees, Mr. Antrobus decides to "burn everything but Shakespeare" to save the human race.

The second act is in Atlantic City just before the Big Flood. The Antrobus family is vacationing after Mr. Antrobus had been elected to the presidency. This holiday is interrupted by the end of the world.

The third act takes place after the last World war. The play ends on a happy note, with all the Antrobus family together cleaning up the world after the war.

Mr. Wilder wrote the play with intentional mistakes such as scenery moving and characters forgetting their lines. Because of this the stage manager is on stage a great deal of the time helping the characters with their difficulties and explaining things to the audience.

The play was ably directed by Robert Hires and much credit goes to him for making the play such a great success.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

When the doors of MTHS swung open for the 1949-1950 school year, forty-six sophomores entered to enroll.

Our class officers elected for the year were as follows: James Wiltz, president; Will Bachman, vice president and William Zimmerman, secretary-treasurer. Representatives to the student council were June Joerger and James Seckler. Our class advisers were Miss Brucker and Mr. Eigenbrodt.

Freshman initiation day was held September 30. Everyone, including the freshmen had an enjoyable time.

Two of our classmates received second at the district music contest at Canton Pat Grieser and James Wiltz.

A few of our class members were quite unfortunate this year. They Robert Wernsman, Richard Mishler and Donna Marchand. Robert and Richard were in accidents, and Donna had rheumatic fever.

April 6 we gave an assembly program. This was the first year we had given one. The program included musical numbers, baton twirling, a skit and faculty take-offs. June Bachman was mistress of ceremonies.

We had two class parties this year, a theatre party and a skating party.

We have all enjoyed our sophomore year which has proved to be very successful. Now we are looking forward to next year when we will no longer be classified as lower classmen.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September 6, forty-five brave freshmen came to MTHS for their first day of high school.

Later in the month they were initiated by the sophomores. The girls were to be seen running around in their dads' old clothes and boots, while the boys made a ridiculous appearance dressed as girls. Some funny pictures were taken that day!

In September we held our first class meeting. Officers elected at that time were as follows: Sylvia Neumann, president; Pat Schneider, vice president, and Martha Ringness, secretary-treasurer. Student council representatives were Mary Anna Mahoney and James Steider. Miss Helton and Mr. Lewis were our class advisers.

In the fall we had a theatre party. We went to Peoria to see "Father Was a Fullback." Many freshmen attended the party and everyone had a good time.

In April we sponsored a hobby show. Many interesting hobbies, collections and antiques were exhibited.

This year's student council has proved itself to be one of the most active and capable councils MTHS has ever had.

This year instead of selling magazine subscriptions to earn money, the student council sold candy and pop at the county basketball tournament.

This year it was again the duty of the student council to keep the hot lunch line in order at noon. The student council made a schedule for recreation at noon. The first activity on the schedule was a basketball tournament. After this they sponsored a volleyball tournament.

Officers elected were: Marvin Smith, president; Paul Schrock, vice president, and Marvin Bachman, secretary-treasurer. Marvin Smith, Paul Schrock, Phyllis Schumacher and Betty Gries attended the Student Council convention on April 20-21 in Peoria. Mr. Dees accompanied the delegates.

This year's student council was directed by Mr. Dees and Mr. Laitos.

The FHA chapter of MTHS has been very active this year and has accomplished many things.

The chapter has had the privilege of having some of its members speak on the various FHA and FFA radio programs which are given monthly over WMBD in Peoria.

Several rummage sales were held in Peoria from which the chapter profited. One meeting was devoted to packing Christmas gifts for underprivileged children in Europe. Through this project many of the FHA members are now writing to boys and girls in foreign countries.

The FFA also built a fireplace in the grove of trees east of the high school. At a dedication service, the fireplace was presented to the school.

Alan Welte, Willis Bachman and James Steider judged dairy at Washburn in the sectional. James Steider received fifth place.

The social affiliate of girls' physical education is the Girls' Athletic association. It has 63 members. The yearly program has consisted of meetings, parties, play days, tournaments and a demonstration.

The first event of the fall program was a party given for the new members to acquaint them with the work of the organization.

Tournaments have been held in volleyball and basketball in intramural girls' and coeducational games. The basketball tournament was climaxed by the IHSA g telegraphic basketball shooting tournament. The award we received was second place in our district. The state contains thirteen districts.

Play days were held at Eureka and Washington. Girls from our school attended.

The final event of the year was the GAA Revue given in May. It was presented to make money to send a GAA girl to camp. A camp there was used for the program. It depicted a day at camp.

The officers for this year were: Mary Glaub, president; Marietta Schneider, vice president; Phyllis Schumacher, secretary; Donna Turner, treasurer, and Pat Grieser, reporter. Mrs. Kearney was our adviser.

Initiation of new members was our first event of the new school year. Officers elected for the year were—Marvin Smith, president; Robert Hoffman, vice-president, and Robert Wagner, secretary-treasurer.

The "M" Club sponsored SKULLER, hockey and basketball games this spring. A full house enjoyed thrills, spills and chills throughout these two contests.

We plan, in the near future, to build a new trophy case, as the one in use at present is filled.

CHEMPHIBIO CLUB

The Chemphibio club this year was divided into three groups: Photography, radio and bacteriology. Regular meetings were held every other Friday in the biology room and the laboratory and members were free to use the darkroom and laboratory at any time for their individual work.

In addition to developing and printing pictures, the photography department exchanged information concerning all aspects of photography.

The radio department began work by erecting a permanent antenna. Following projects were the building of a crystal set and a one-tube shortwave receiver, repairing of defective radios and converting personal radio sets to headphone operation.

The members in the bacteriology section began actual work under the direction of Mr. Eigenbrodt. They learned the principles and techniques involved and soon put them into practice. This is the youngest department in the club.

On December 14 Mr. Eigenbrodt and ten members of the club went to Chicago for a conducted tour through the Museum of Natural History, a visit to the Aquarium and a striking explanation for the Star of Bethlehem at the Adler Planetarium. The climax of the year's activity was the field trip in May, when we visited the Northwestern Research laboratory.

The officers for the year were: Donald Halford, president; James Zimmerman, vice president; Eugene Schaefer, secretary-treasurer. Section leaders were: Photography Robert Chilcot, radio Donald Halford, bacteriology James Zimmerman. Advisers were Mr. Eigenbrodt, who worked with the bacteriology section, and Mr. Johnson, who instructed the photography.

Officers for this year were: Marilyn Bachman, president; Mary Lee Noe, vice president, and Mary Anna Mahoney, secretary

The chorus took part in the operetta, "Up in the Air" and the Christmas Vespers during the first semester. Later in the school year, along with the boys' chorus and a cappella choir, it sponsored a piano concert by Frederic Sjobiarn. In April it took part in the Woodford County Chorus Festival at Minonk

The boys' chorus, whose membership is open to all of the boys in school, had thirty members this year. Enrollment in boys' chorus was one of the largest in recent years.

Our first major activity was the operetta in which all of the chorus members participated. At the Woodford County Band Festival this year the boys' chorus presented a special number for our school. They sang "Kentucky Babe."

Together with the girls' chorus, the group went to the Woodford County Chorus Festival at Minonk in April. Rehearsal was held in the afternoon with E. Carl Lundgren of Illinois Wesleyan University, junior college of music at Springfield as conductor. In the evening a program open to the public was given.

Officers elected for the year were James Wiltz president and Harold Neumann secretary. Rehearsals were held one day a week.

Our schedule for this year was not a heavy one, but we did participate in several activities. At Christmas time we gave a program for the public with the help of the girls' chorus

In April we went to Minonk to take part in the annual county chorus festival. In the fall we gave the operetta, "Up in the Air," in which the other choruses took part

BAND

The band activities began for the 1949-50 school year at MTHS by electing officers. We elected Harold Neumann president, Eugene Schlabach, secretary, and James Zimmerman, Burtron Schertz and Marietta Schneider, board members.

One of the first activities was marching at the Washburn Festival. Another event was the Eureka Pumpkin Festival in which our band participated as part of the massed band.

Home activities began by playing between the halves of football games. When basketball games started, a pep band was organized. We played for many of the home games, the Woodford county basketball tournament and Dick Broers night.

Band ensembles were also organized this year. The ensembles were flutes and oboe, saxophone quartette, clarinet trio, brass sextette and trombone quartette.

The annual Woodford County Band Festival was held in Metamora in March. An evening concert was held in the gym.

One of the last activities for the year was playing for graduation. Many of the band members from MTHS will play in the town band this summer.

“UP IN THE AIR”

Schneider, James Wiltz, Connie Stamper, James Zimmerman, Harold Neumann, Marvin Elbert.

A capacity crowd was present at the high school gymnasium October 26 to enjoy the operetta, "Up in the Air," a comedy by Geoffrey Morgan and Don C. Wilson. Mr. Stephenson was the director.

Other members of the cast included Connie Stumper as Shirley Kingston, Neney Smith as Arnie McCullum, Norma Smith as Fannie McCullom, Maratta Schneider as Mrs. McCullom, Janice Stevens as Mrs. Burtink and Mayan Smith as Jumper Johnson. The students in both girls glee club and boys glee club made up the chorus.

The operetta was given in two acts. During the intermission there was a special dedication ceremony of our new stage curtains given to the school by our alumnae classes of 1945, '46, '47 and '48.

PARROT STAFF

THE PARROT

This year The Parrot, our school newspaper, had as co editors Janice Sullivan and Betty Gries. Others on the staff were: Doris Elbert and Burtron Schertz, associate editors; Kathryn Leatherman and Marvin Smith, business managers, and Ferne Garber and Bernadette Giehl, exchange editors.

Most of the members of the senior class are appointed to some job on the staff. However, this year we were fortunate enough to have some juniors help us with the paper. James Zimmerman was a sports editor, Donald Halford and Marietta Schneider were associate editors and Connie Stamper wrote feature articles. The co-editors want to thank these people for their cooperation and their willingness to work to make The Parrot a success.

Published monthly, the printed paper consists of six pages and is made up of news around school. However, there are essays, poems, two editorials, letters to the editors, an athletic page and other feature articles.

For the future it is planned that each class will have members represented on the newspaper staff. The Parrot was originally a senior publication, but underclassmen should gain experience so that when they become seniors they will be competent to fill major positions.

The Parrot has an exchange list of forty schools, and quite a number of students and townspeople are subscribers. We have continued as a member of the Illinois State High School Press association.

Robert Hires was the adviser for The Parrot.

LIBRARY

The main library contains most of our books, but the reserve library in the study hall contains newspapers, magazines and reference materials.

This year the library added a new system of stacking magazines. The card file was completed. Eighty-three new books were purchased.

On Honors day, awards were presented in recognition of outstanding services to the library. Silver medals were given to Barbara Grebner, Donald Kennel, Pat Koch, Alan Welte, LaVerne Wolfe and Doris Elbert. Gold awards were presented to Colette Bachman, Phyllis Grebner, Donald Halford, Harold Neumann, Marietta Schneider, Phyllis Schumacher, Connie Stamper, James Zimmerman and Bruce Seeber. The gold award with the year guard for outstanding service was presented to Murlene Garber.

In order to be eligible for any award a student must be of junior or senior standing and have at least one year of library work. Librarians are selected on the basis of scholastic eligibility, integrity, desire to work with books and to be of service to the school.

Miss Helton is in charge of the library and has twenty-six student librarians.

SPEECH CONTESTANTS

Martha R

STATE SPEECH CONTEST

Metamora won first place in class B schools in the district speech contest held at Peoria Woodruff High on February 12.

James Zimmerman, entered for the second year in oratorical declamation, gave "What Kind of Government Ahead?" by Dwight D. Eisenhower. He placed second in class B.

In her second year for verse speaking Connie Stamper placed first in class B. She was required to give three poems.

Martha Ringness gave "Joan of Lorraine," by Maxwell Anderson and placed fourth in serious reading in class B.

Another first year contestant was Harold Neumann, who entered extemporaneous speaking and placed first in class B.

Burtron Schertz placed first in class B in original oration, "Murder at Will." His was a very difficult field. This was his first try, too, and it is regretful that Burtron is a senior.

For the fourth year Betty Gries placed first in her class and second in the entire field. She gave the comedy reading "The Man Who Came to Dinner," by George F. Kauffman and Moss Hart. This was Betty's first year in comedy, for in her previous years she did serious readings.

All of the contestants and the faculty members, Miss Helton and Mr. Hires, are to be commended for their efforts and the recognition they have brought to our school.

"LITHUANIA"

For the first time in several years the MTHS dramatic department entered a one-act play in the Woodford County Dramatic Festival and the high school district speech contest.

The play was "Lithuania," by Rupert Brooks. It is the story of a poverty stricken family in Lithuania who in their haste for a better life unknowingly kill their own long lost son.

Although it was only a one-act play, it contained all the excitement and action of a three-act play. The cast was an excellent one in which all four classes were represented. It was well directed by Mr. Hires.

The play was first presented at the County Dramatic Festival in February at El Paso, again at the district speech contest in Peoria and the last time for an MTHS program in which all speech contestants appeared.

The cast included Robert Chilcot as the father; Barbara Koch, mother; Connie Stamper, daughter; Donald Halford, stranger; Bruce Seeber, young man; Marvin Elbert, vodka shopkeeper, and James Steider, vodka shopkeeper's son.

FOOTBALL

The 1949 season was a rebuilding period for the Redbirds, winning two and tying one out of nine games. This year's schedule consisted of Morton, Eureka, Chillicothe, El Paso, Minonk, Dunlap, Tremont, Gridley and Washington, who defeated us in the homecoming game.

Having a hard time finding backfield men, Coach Walter Laitas brought forth hard driving backs such as Bruce Seeter, Vernon Guth and Eugene Schlabach. In many games most of the men had to play the entire game without rest because of the lack of substitutes.

Clyde Parshall and Loren Zimmerman were the managers for the football team.

Next year, with men like Marvin Elbert and Eugene Schlabach, we hope to have a very good team. Graduating from this year's squad are: Bruce Seeter, Vernon Guth, Richard Hoffman, Marvin Smith, Roland Schneider and Eugene Nauman, a transfer playing his first year of football.

The graduating players hope that in future years more interest will be shown in this sport.

CAPTAIN SEEBER

BRUCE SEEBER

Bruce Seeber, captain of the 1949 MTHS football team, played end and back-field on the team for three years.

Captain Seeber was a good defensive man and also a shifty open-field runner. He was one of the best players on the team.

A play during his sophomore year in the Homecoming game with Washington is one that stands out in Bruce's memory. A Washington player was on his way to a touchdown with no Metamora men between him and the goal line, but Bruce managed to grab him by the neck of his jersey and bring him down. Metamora went on to win, 6-0.

Bruce was also very active and popular in many other school activities.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

BASKETBALL

The Redbirds enjoyed a successful season, compiling a record of 15 wins and 12 losses. Team spirit was good throughout the season. Most of the games lost were close, two being in overtimes.

The team participated in three tournaments during the year: The Illio played at Morton in which Metamora took second and Washington first; the Woodford county tournament at Metamora in which we again placed second, Benson taking county championship honors; the regional tournament at East Peoria in which the Redbirds lost a close game to Manual, who was rated in the upper sixteen teams in the state.

Graduating from this year's squad are Captain Marvin Smith, Bruce Seeber and Eugene Nauman. Returning lettermen are Harold Neumann, James Zimmerman and Paul Schrock, juniors, and James Wiltz, sophomore.

James Herron acted as manager for the basketball team. The team was ably coached by Roy Larson, who was in his second year here at Metamora.

There was improvement from last year in the team, and let us hope that next year's team will continue to progress and give MTHS another successful season.

CAPTAIN SMITH

Marvin Smith, captain of the 1949-50 MTHS basketball team, played guard on the varsity for three years

Marvin's specialties were a two-hand set shot from out around the circle and a one-hand push shot from the side

Captain Smith says that his greatest basketball thrill came during his sophomore year, when, in the last few seconds of the Gridley-Metamora game at Metamora, he made a free throw that won the game. The fact that this was the only game the team won that year is the factor that really made it Marvin's big moment in basketball.

His highest scoring game was 21 points, and during this season he scored a total of 177 points

Marvin was also very active and popular in all other phases of school activities.

The first team is made up of boys who have come up through the freshman-sophomore and the junior-varsity teams. Some of the more impressive members of these teams this year who will fill the vacancies left on the varsity by graduating seniors are Richard Mishler, James Seckler, Eugene Schlabach, Durward Guth and Eugene Schaefer. Others show promise that can be fulfilled by hard work.

The junior-varsity played four games this year against LaRose and Lowpoint. They won three and lost one. The reserve team, which played a game preceding each first team game had a successful season. The freshman-sophomore team won second place in the Washington Invitational freshman-sophomore tournament.

TRACK

The 1950 track team was proud to initiate its new uniforms by getting second place in a triangular meet with Roanoke and Morton. The first meet was held on the home track.

Harold Neumann, veteran track man, won two firsts in the long distance running. His victories were in the mile and the half-mile. Because it was a very cold and windy day, the dashmen did not do too much. The team did very well considering it was made up mostly of underclassmen who lack experience.

The next meet was also held at Metamora with Eureka. The visitors won 68 to 40. Many of our track meets were postponed because of bad weather.

The Woodford county meet was held at Metamora in May. Our team also went to the Gridley relays. Coach Walter Laitas was manager of the Illino conference track meet at the Peoria stadium in which the track team participated.

Last year's 1949 team took third in both the Illino and Woodford county meets. Kenneth Sharick took firsts in the 100 and 440-yard dashes. Charles Doak threw the discus for a first place and Gene Fehr took first in the half-mile in the Illino conference meet. These are a few of last year's high-point men.

The graduating trackmen of the 1950 season are Bruce Seeber, Eugene Nauman, Fred Fandel, Vernon Guth and Marvin Smith.

BASEBALL TEAM

BASEBALL

The Redbird baseball squad under Coach Roy Larson opened the season with six returning lettermen. They were Eugene Schlabach, hard-hitting first baseman; Milford Broers, second baseman; Durward Guth, pitcher; Jack Gaetz, sophomore catcher; Paul DuBois, third base, and James Zimmerman, outfielder.

The team wore new uniforms donated by the school board. The team was hampered by a lack of experienced players. The squad was made up mostly of underclassmen—only four seniors on the team. Some of the more promising prospects were: Marvin Smith, pitcher and outfielder; Eugene Nauman, a transfer from Benson where he earned his letter in baseball, catcher and outfielder; Richard Dehosity, infielder and pitcher; Harold Neumann, outfielder, and James Wiltz, pitcher. The first three games were cancelled because of poor weather.

The season opened at Eureka with Metamora taking a 3-2 loss despite Eugene Schlabach's home run. Seven Illino conference games were scheduled for this spring. Other games scheduled included games with Woodruff and the district tournament at Lowpoint.

The graduating lettermen from last year's team, which won six, lost eight and tied one, were: Durward Guth, honorary captain and pitcher; Gene Fehr, pitcher and infielder, and Richard Zimmerman, outfielder.

This year's team, composed mostly of underclassmen should in a few years produce a good team.

CAPTAIN DU BOIS

PAUL DU BOIS

Paul DuBois, captain of the 1949-50 MTHS baseball team, has played third base on the team for two years

Paul bats third in the line up, and he estimates that his batting average is "about .200."

Captain DuBois started his high school baseball career as a freshman by playing on the Metamora team in a Peoria area league sponsored by the Peoria Journal-Transcript. The team that year captured first in the league.

One of the incidents Paul remembers most about high school baseball was hitting a double against Morton with the bases loaded and thus scoring three runs.
